

In All Content Areas

- To encourage our students to grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
- To expand the depth of our knowledge of God and the world He created and sustains.
- To develop our God-given abilities to His glory.

Religion Class Objectives

- To present the Bible to the students as God's complete, inerrant Word.
- To present to the students the triune God (Father, Son, Holy Spirit) of the Bible as the One True God.
- To daily use and apply the Word of God to strengthen the faith of our students.
- To help students grow in the understanding of the Law and Gospel, while reinforcing the fact that our eternal salvation comes entirely as free gift of God's grace.
- To equip our students in their calling to be His witnesses.

Social Science Objectives

- To show God's hand in the history and geography of the world.
- To understand our role in the community as Christians citizens and neighbors.
- To appreciate the many blessings we receive as citizens of the United States, such as freedom of Religion.
- To learn the history of world religions from a Christian perspective.
- To compare and contrast secular events and philosophies with the teachings of the Bible.

Science Objectives

- To further our understanding of our Creator through observation of his creation.
- To further our understanding of God's creation and the scientific laws which He designed.
- To further our understanding of how the creation has been affected by sin yet sustained by God.

Math Objectives

- To understand that mathematics is created by God and derives its purpose, meaning, and value from God.
- To see and appreciate God's design in the structure and orderliness of Creation.
- To develop a sense of financial literacy and to be wise and faithful stewards of the things God has given us.
- To recognize God's perfection through the mathematical laws and relationships He has created.

Language

- To develop the skills of reading, writing, listening, and speaking to glorify God.
- To develop the skills of reading, writing, listening, and speaking to spread God's Word.
- To analyze secular texts from a Christian perspective.

Music

- To further our ability to glorify God through music.
- To further our ability to use music to spread the Gospel.
- To learn many different kinds of music which can be used to praise and worship God.
- To understand music used in worship - liturgy and hymns.

Art

- To further our ability to glorify God through art.
- To further our ability to use art to spread the Gospel.
- To further appreciate God's creative design in the natural world.