Pre-Service Meditation

Psalm 16 (pg. 125, Red Hymnal)

Prayer: Dear Lord Jesus, I give thanks today again as I celebrate what Your death and Resurrection mean to me! Fill me with the Holy Spirit, so that Your ears hear the praise and joy of my heart! In Your saving, glorious, life-giving name I pray... Amen!

Resurrection of our Lord

For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

The Strife is O'er, the Battle Done

P: We begin our celebration of Christ's resurrection in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

ALL: Amen!

♪ Come, you faithful, raise the strain
Of triumphant gladness!
God has brought His Israel
Into joy from sadness.
See the spring of souls today:
Christ has burst His prison
And from three days' sleep in death
As a sun has risen.

WS 726 (v. 1)

P: The joy of celebrating our Lord's Resurrection continues. This joy forms the basis for an entirely new life of hope; the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ reorders our earthly lives around an entirely new and different set of priorities. Instead of living for self which dooms us, we live for Jesus Who promises us eternity through His death and resurrection saying, "Because I live, you shall live also!"

P: Let Israel say: "His love endures forever."

C: Let the house of Aaron say: "His love endures forever."

P: Let those who fear the LORD say:

C: "His love endures forever."

P: In my anguish I cried to the LORD,

C: And he answered by setting me free.

P: The LORD is with me;

C: I will not be afraid. What can man do to me?

P: The LORD is with me;

C: He is my helper. I will look in triumph on my enemies.

P: I was pushed back and about to fall,

C: But the LORD helped me.

P: The LORD is my strength and my song;

C: He has become my salvation.

P: Shouts of joy and victory resound in the tents of the righteous:

C: "The LORD's right hand has done mighty things!"

P: The LORD's right hand is lifted high;

LESSON 1: Events near the Tomb (Sunday morning)

There was a violent earthquake, for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven and, going to the tomb, rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow. The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men.

While it was still dark, Mary of Magdala went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance. So she came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved (John), and said, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have put him!"

Just after sunrise, the women took the spices they had prepared and went on their way to the tomb and they asked each other, "Who will roll the stone away from the entrance of the tomb?" But when they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had been rolled away. As they entered the tomb, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them.

In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Do not be afraid. You are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: 'The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.' Come and see the place where they laid him. Then go quickly and tell his disciples: and Peter, 'He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee.' There you will see him, just as he told you. Now I have told you." Then they remember his words. Trembling and bewildered, the women went out and hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and ran to tell his disciples. They said nothing to anyone, because they were afraid.

Meanwhile, Peter and John started for the tomb. Both were running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent over and looked in at the strips of linen lying there but did not go in. Then Simon Peter, who was behind him, arrived and went into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there, as well as the burial cloth that had been around Jesus' head. The cloth was folded up by itself, separate from the linen. Finally John, who had reached the tomb first, also went inside. He saw and believed. (They still did not understand from scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead). Then the disciples went back to their homes, wondering what had happened.

Soon after, Mary returned and stood outside the tomb crying. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb and saw two angels in white, seated where Jesus' body had been, one at the head and the other at the foot. They asked her, "Woman, why are you crying?" "They have taken my Lord away," she said, "and I don't know where they have put him."

At this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not realize that it was Jesus. "Woman," he said, "why are you crying? Who is it you are looking for?" Thinking he was the gardener, she said, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will get him." Jesus said to her, "Mary."

She turned toward him and cried out in Aramaic, "Rabboni!" (which means Teacher). Jesus said, "Do not hold on to me, for I have not yet returned to the Father. Go instead to my brothers and tell them, 'I am returning to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'"

While the other women were on their way to tell the disciples about the angels' message, Jesus suddenly met them. "Greetings," he said. They came to him, clasped his feet and worshiped him. Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me."

When they came back from the tomb, Mary of Magdala went to the disciples with the news: "I have seen the Lord!" And she told them that he had said these things to her. The women all told these things to the Eleven and to all the others who had followed him and who were mourning and weeping. It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them who told this to the apostles. But they did not believe the women, because their words seemed to them like nonsense.

Meanwhile, while all the women were on their way to tell the disciples, some of the guards went into the city and reported to the chief priests everything that had happened. When the chief priests had met with the elders and devised a plan, they gave the soldiers a large sum of money, telling them, "You are to say, 'His disciples came during the night and stole him away while we were asleep.' If this report gets to the governor, we will satisfy him and keep you out of trouble." So the soldiers took the money and did as they were instructed. And this story has been widely circulated among the Jews to this very day.

LESSON 2: Road to Emmaus & Back (Sunday afternoon)

Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them; but they were kept from recognizing him. He asked them, "What are you discussing together as you walk along?" They stood still, their faces downcast. One of them, named Cleopas, asked him, "Are you only a visitor to Jerusalem and do not know the things that have happened there in these days?" "What things?" he asked.

"About Jesus of Nazareth," they replied. "He was a prophet, powerful in word and deed before God and all the people. The chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him; but we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel. And what is more, it is the third day since all this took place. In addition, some of our women amazed us. They went to the tomb early this morning but didn't find his body. They came and told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but him they did not see."

He said to them, "How foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! Did not the Christ have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?" And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself.

As they approached the village to which they were going, Jesus acted as if he were going farther. But they urged him strongly, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening; the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them. Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him, and he disappeared from their sight. They asked each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?"

They got up and returned at once to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven and those with them, assembled together and saying, "It is true! The Lord has risen and has appeared to Simon." Then the two told what had happened on the way, and how Jesus was recognized by them when he broke the bread.

YOUR HANDS ARE FULL OF FLOWERS

OUR CONFESSION OF FAITH

2 PETER 3:9-10, 13-15, 18

The Lord is not slow in keeping His promise, as some understand slowness. He is patient with us, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance. But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare...

But in keeping with Jesus' promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, the home of righteousness. Bearing in mind that our Lord's patience means salvation, just as our dear brother Paul also wrote with the wisdom that God gave him... that we may grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be glory both now and forever! Amen.

LESSON 3: Jesus appears to disciples (Sunday evening)

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the disciples were still talking about this, with the doors locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus himself stood among them as they were eating; and said to them, "Peace be with you." They were startled and frightened, thinking they saw a ghost. He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? Look at my hands and my feet. It is I myself! Touch me and see; a ghost does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have."

When he had said this, he rebuked them for their lack of faith and their stubborn refusal to believe those who had seen him after he had risen. After he said this, he showed them his hands and feet and side. And while they still did not believe it because of joy and amazement, he asked them, "Do you have anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate it in their presence. The disciples were overjoyed when they saw the Lord. Again Jesus said, "Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, I am sending you." And with that he breathed on them and said,

“Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive anyone his sins, they are forgiven; if you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven.”

Now Thomas (called Didymus), one of the Twelve, was not with the disciples when Jesus came. When the other disciples told him that they had seen the Lord, he declared, “Unless I see the nail marks in his hands and put my finger where the nails were, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe it.”

A week later his disciples were in the house again, and Thomas was with them. Though the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you!” Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here; see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Stop doubting and believe.”

Thomas said to him, “My Lord and my God!” Then Jesus told him, “Because you have seen me, you have believed; blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed.”

in a place by itself. 8 Then the other disciple, who came to the tomb first, went in also; and he saw and believed.” 9 For as yet they did not know the Scripture, that He must rise again from the dead.

EASTER PLANTS For those who purchased Easter plants, you are invited to take your plant(s) home after the 10 am service on Easter Sunday.

EASTER PANCAKE BREAKFAST All are welcome for pancake breakfast on Sunday, April 21, from 8:00 - 9:30 am. Per tradition, the men of the congregation prepare and serve. All men wishing to assist are welcome. For more information, contact Daryl Pischner 507-340-4143, Mark Stelter 507-381-3308 or Larry Hartman 507-345-6139.

CLEANING DAY Thank you to everyone who helped to clean the church during the last week. There are a handful of items on the list that have not been completed. If able to help out on your own schedule, please see the list in the narthex. Be sure to mark items off when completed.

QUARTERLY VOTER MEETING: April 22 at 7 pm

Boards and Committees please have your quarterly reports prepared for a verbal or handout or send report to the church president or church secretary for presentation at the quarterly meeting on or before April 22. Please ensure your report summarizes your actions and work accomplished in the last 90 days, current activities being worked on, and future plans or objectives for 2019. If you have any agenda items or motions for the quarterly voter meeting, please forward those to Mark Stelter at mstelter@gmail.com Questions/concerns, please contact Mark Stelter or any deacon.

Agenda:

- Quarterly reports from boards and committees
- Constitution Committee bringing addition to Bylaw #2 of the church constitution for voter action on: Suspension and Reinstatement

A majority vote of the voters present at a regular congregation meeting may:

1. Suspend the voting privileges of a voter who has not attended at least one congregational meeting during the preceding calendar year. Suspension of voting privileges may be brought to the congregation by the Deacons after contacting the voter.
2. Reinstate the voting privileges of a suspended voter who presents himself and requests reinstatement at a regular meeting.

BANQUET RSVP If you received an invitation in your church mailbox for the ILHS Junior/Senior Banquet, please RSVP at secretary@immanuelmankato.org or by calling or texting Paula at 507-720-1174. Due to a meal count deadline, RSVP's will not be accepted after April 23. Prepayment is preferred. Make checks payable to Immanuel Student Funds.

To make an appointment, call 800-733-2767 or visit redcrossblood.org and enter ImmanuelELC. Mara Heinze is coordinating and is looking for 2-4 volunteers to help with check-in and the canteen. Please call 507-382-4331 if interested in volunteering.

INVITATION: Confirmation Open House To celebrate Austin's confirmation, the Liens will be having an open house Sunday, April 28, from 1-3 pm, at their home. Please come by for cake and coffee! 1969 Valley View Dr, North Mankato.

SAVE THE DATE: Church Picnic Immanuel's annual Church Picnic will take place at Tourtellotte Park on May 27 after the Memorial Day Service. The main dish will be provided, so please bring a side dish or dessert to share. Please plan to bring your own seating or picnic blankets for eating. Lawn games will be provided for children. We look forward to seeing everyone there!

OPPORTUNITY TO SUPPORT CLC MISSION HELPER TRIP

My name is Abigail Stelter, I am a senior at ILHS. I Am very excited that God has opened a door of opportunity for me to be a part of the CLC Mission Helper Trip this coming summer! As you can well imagine, the financial cost of such service to the Lord is rather large. The cost of the trip is approximately $3,000 - $3,500. With the help of my home church and my own personal savings, have put up a portion of the trip but there is still a large sum left in food, lodging, and travel expenses still needed. I am asking for your assistance to help me cover part of the cost for this trip as well as your prayers on behalf of myself, the other volunteers, and the many lost souls who will be reached with the Gospel. Anything you can give will be greatly appreciated and put to good use in the Lord's Kingdom.

BAPTISM

The son of Matthew and Katie (Dorn) Wills was baptized at Immanuel on April 20, 2019, by Pastor Doug Libby.

For you are all children of God through faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.
