Opening Hymn 760:1-4 LSB
What God Ordains Is Always Good

INVOCATION We invoke ("call upon") the name of our Triune God.

Pastor (P): In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
Congregation (C): Amen.

All: O almighty God, merciful Father, I, a poor, miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have offended You. I justly deserve Your temporal and eternal punishment. But I am heartily sorry for my sins and sincerely repent of them. I pray that You would of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, be gracious and merciful to me, a poor, sinful being.

P: Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, has had mercy upon you and has given His only Son to die for you, and for His sake forgives you all your sins. To all who believe on His name He gives the privilege of being children of God and has promised them His Holy Spirit. He that believes and is baptized shall be saved. Grant this, Lord, unto us all.

C: Amen.

EPISTLE READING 1 THESSALONIANS 5:14-24

In this short section, Paul concludes his letter with a series of short, sanctification-packed messages that flow from the gospel. We see in these descriptions the attitudes and behaviors that mirror trust in Jesus in the believer's life. One predominating theme is that God oversees all these aspects of our lives, and directs us by His grace.

14 Now we exhort you, brethren, warn those who are unruly, comfort the fainthearted, uphold the weak, be patient with all. 15 See that no one renders evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue what is good both for yourselves and for all. 16 Rejoice always, 17 pray without ceasing, 18 in everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. 19 Do not quench the Spirit. 20 Do not despise prophecies. 21 Test all things; hold fast what is good. 22 Abstain from every form of evil. 23 Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you completely; and may your whole spirit, soul, and body be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. 24 He who calls you is faithful, who also will do it.

RESPONSIVE READING PSALM 73:1-17

Asaph is identified with the twelve Psalms and is said to be the son of Berechiah who is said to be an ancestor of the Asaphites. The Asaphites were one of the guilds of musicians in the First Temple. Asaph speaks of frustrations with seeing the prosperity of the wicked. This Psalm specifically reminds us that it is easy when we encounter trials to try to ignore it or find distractions to not deal with it. Yet, here we are reminded by the Word of the LORD to return to Him and His house to find comfort, strength, and direction from our God and Savior.

P: <A Psalm of Asaph.>

Truly God is good to Israel, To such as are pure in heart.

C: But as for me, my feet had almost stumbled;
My steps had nearly slipped.

P: For I was envious of the boastful,
When I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

C: For there are no pangs in their death, But their strength is firm.

P: They are not in trouble as other men,
Nor are they plagued like other men.

C: Therefore pride serves as their necklace;
Violence covers them like a garment.

P: Their eyes bulge with abundance;

C: They have more than heart could wish.

P: They scoff and speak wickedly concerning oppression;

C: They speak loftily.

P: They set their mouth against the heavens,

C: And their tongue walks through the earth.

P: Therefore his people return here,
And waters of a full cup are drained by them.

C: And they say, "How does God know?
And is there knowledge in the Most High?"

P: Behold, these are the ungodly, Who are always at ease;

C: They increase in riches.

P: Surely I have cleansed my heart in vain,
And washed my hands in innocence.

C: For all day long I have been plagued, And chastened every morning.

P: If I had said, "I will speak thus,"

Behold, I would have been untrue to the generation of Your children.

C: When I thought how to understand this, It was too painful for me--

P: Until I went into the sanctuary of God;

C: Then I understood their end.

GOSPEL READING MATTHEW 25:14-30

Congregational Welcome : ♪ Glory be to You, O Lord!

Jesus' parable of the talents is properly told in the context of a talent as a monetary amount. However, Jesus' point of the parable is being wise with the variety of talents, abilities and gifts that He has entrusted to our care to use to His glory. Clearly with the warning at the end, Jesus says there is great expectation in how we handle the responsibilities He has entrusted to us. You can only spend the time you've been gifted by the LORD 'while it is day, night is coming when no one can work.' Thank you always Jesus for giving us the joyful opportunity to serve you.

"For the kingdom of heaven is like a man traveling to a far country, who called his own servants and delivered his goods to them. 15 "And to one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, to each according to his own ability; and immediately he went on a journey. 16 "Then he who had received the five talents went and traded with them, and made another five talents. 17 "And likewise he who had received two gained two more also. 18 "But he who had received one went and dug in the ground, and hid his lord's money.

19 "After a long time the lord of those servants came and settled accounts with them. 20 "So he who had received five talents came and brought five other talents, saying, 'Lord, you delivered to me five talents; look, I have gained five more talents besides them.' 21 "His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you were faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.' 22 "He also who had received two talents came and said, 'Lord, you delivered to me two talents; look, I have gained two more talents besides them.' 23 "His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.' 24 "Then he who had received the one talent came and said, 'Lord, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you have not sown, and gathering where you have not scattered seed. 25 'And I was afraid, and went and hid your talent in the ground. Look, there you have what is yours.' 26 "But his lord answered and said to him, 'You wicked and lazy servant, you knew that I reap where I have not sown, and gather where I have not scattered seed. 27 'So you ought to have deposited my money with the bankers, and at my coming I would have received back my own with interest. 28 'Therefore take the talent from him, and give it to him who has ten talents. 29 'For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away. 30 'And cast the unprofitable servant into the outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

CONFESSION OF FAITH THE THIRD ARTICLE & EXPLANATION

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

I believe that I cannot by my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ, my Lord, or come to Him. But the Holy Spirit has called me by the Gospel, enlightened me with His gifts, sanctified, and kept me in true faith. In the same way He calls, gathers, enlightens, and sanctifies the whole Christian Church on earth and keeps it with Jesus Christ in the one true faith.

In this Christian Church He daily and richly forgives all sins to me and all believers. On the Last Day He will raise me and all the dead and give to me and all believers in Christ eternal life.

This is most certainly true.

SERMON 1 KINGS 17:17-24

Now it happened after these things that the son of the woman who owned the house became sick. And his sickness was so serious that there was no breath left in him. 18 So she said to Elijah, "What have I to do with you, O man of God? Have you come to me to bring my sin to remembrance, and to kill my son?"

19 And he said to her, "Give me your son." So he took him out of her arms and carried him to the upper room where he was staying, and laid him on his own bed. 20 Then he cried out to the LORD and said, "O LORD my God, have You also brought tragedy on the widow with whom I lodge, by killing her son?"

21 And he stretched himself out on the child three times, and cried out to the LORD and said, "O LORD my God, I pray, let this child's soul come back to him." 22 Then the LORD heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came back to him, and he revived. 23 And Elijah took the child and brought him down from the upper room into the house, and gave him to his mother. And Elijah said, "See, your son lives!" 24 Then the woman said to Elijah, "Now by this I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is the truth."
