Old Testament Reading

2 Kings 2:6-18

Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here, please, for the LORD has sent me on to the Jordan." But he said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you!" So the two of them went on. 7 And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went and stood facing them at a distance, while the two of them stood by the Jordan. 8 Now Elijah took his mantle, rolled it up, and struck the water; and it was divided this way and that, so that the two of them crossed over on dry ground. 9 And so it was, when they had crossed over, that Elijah said to Elisha, "Ask! What may I do for you, before I am taken away from you?" Elisha said, "Please let a double portion of your spirit be upon me." 10 So he said, "You have asked a hard thing. Nevertheless, if you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so for you; but if not, it shall not be so." 11 Then it happened, as they continued on and talked, that suddenly a chariot of fire appeared with horses of fire, and separated the two of them; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven. 12 And Elisha saw it, and he cried out, "My father, my father, the chariot of Israel and its horsemen!" So he saw him no more. And he took hold of his own clothes and tore them into two pieces. 13 He also took up the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and went back and stood by the bank of the Jordan. 14 Then he took the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and struck the water, and said, "Where is the LORD God of Elijah?" And when he also had struck the water, it was divided this way and that; and Elisha crossed over. 15 Now when the sons of the prophets who were from Jericho saw him, they said, "The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha." And they came to meet him, and bowed to the ground before him. 16 Then they said to him, "Look now, there are fifty strong men with your servants. Please let them go and search for your master, lest perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has taken him up and cast him upon some mountain or into some valley." And he said, "You shall not send anyone." 17 But when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, "Send them!" Therefore they sent fifty men, and they searched for three days but did not find him. 18 And when they came back to him, for he had stayed in Jericho, he said to them, "Did I not say to you, 'Do not go'?"

New Testament Reading

Matthew 7:24-29

"Therefore whoever hears these sayings of Mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man who built his house on the rock: 25 "and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it did not fall, for it was founded on the rock. 26 "But everyone who hears these sayings of Mine, and does not do them, will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand: 27 "and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it fell. And great was its fall." 28 And so it was, when Jesus had ended these sayings, that the people were astonished at His teaching, 29 for He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

Confession of Faith

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. From there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

Sermon

This is the message which we have heard from Him and declare to you, that God is light and in Him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. 7 But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin. 8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

2:1 My little children, these things I write to you, so that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 2 And He Himself is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the whole world.

OFFERINGS & WORSHIP Several months ago the deacons began discussing implementing the practice of bringing our offerings to the altar after the collection is received. This is not a custom that is new to Lutheranism or Christianity. In the order of services found in The Lutheran Hymnal there is a note which refers to offerings brought to the altar after it is gathered. Many of us have grown up in congregations where the offerings were brought to the altar during the worship service. After discussing this, the deacons decided that this has been a valuable practice in the past and would be valuable for us to use in our worship as well.

Like other practices in our worship services, the custom of bringing our offerings to the altar may need to be explained to be properly understood, especially since it may be new to some at Immanuel. The practice may be seen by some as “for show.” But what was, and is, the purpose of such a custom? What is the value in it for us? Taking our offerings to the altar is a visual way of reminding us who our offerings are intended for. Our offerings are not just for “the church.” The word “offering” comes from the Old Testament which uses the word to refer to sacrifices that were given to God by placing them on an altar. “Then Noah built an altar to the LORD, and took of every clean animal and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar” (Genesis 8:20). Such offerings were not for show, but were given to God out of thankfulness for what God had done.

Note also where the offering occurs in our worship service. Our offerings are given after we hear God’s word proclaimed to us. This is not by chance. It is where it should come. The giving of offerings flow from the good news of God’s work for us. Paul writes: “For the love of Christ compels us” (2 Corinthians 5:14). By bringing our offerings to the altar, we are reminded that what we place in the offering plate is not simply a contribution to “keep the lights on,” but is much more than that. It is our gift to God Himself, for Him and for His work. By taking the offerings to the altar, we can visually communicate to our children, what our “offering” is all about, and who it is really for. It is a reminder that all we have comes from God, and we simply give back to Him, out of the abundance of what He has given us. Thanks be to God!

For these reasons, it is our prayer that this practice will enrich our understanding of what we do in worship and give us the opportunity to communicate this important truth to the next generation.

COLLEGE AGE BIBLE STUDY We are beginning a Bible study for college age young people beginning on Monday, September 23rd. The studies will take up “Questions Christians hope no one will ask” and will cover important questions about the Christian faith that young adults hear from their peers or even wrestle with themselves. Young people do not need to be in college. This is intended for young people ages 18-23 (or older!), who have graduated from High School. Please join us as we address these questions and see that God has good answers to these questions. Our Bible study will meet on the second and fourth Monday of each month at 7pm, and will be offered both online (meet.google.com/eoo-ojhw-zje), and in person here at church. Please share this information with your college-age family members! If you have questions, or if you would like to share contact information for someone who may be interested, please reach out to Pastor Mayhew.

ADULT BIBLE CLASS In Bible Class this year we have been taking up a series of studies under the theme: "What Does the Bible Say About...?" This week we are considering the question "What does the Bible say about the Ten Commandments?" God gave Moses an incredibly concise and simple set of rules to govern how mankind ought to act toward God and toward our fellow human beings. Yet, as simple as they are to understand, they also are incredibly deep in their meaning and application to our daily lives. Next week we will study the concept of judgment. Christians are often accused of being "judgy." Is this a valid accusation? Why or why not? We hope that you will join us as we study what God has to say about these important topics!

SUNDAY SCHOOL This week our students studied the account of David and Goliath. Although none of the other Israelites were brave enough to face the giant Goliath, David bravely ran to the enemy of God's people, trusting that God would give Him the victory. Our children will face giants in their lives. May they learn to trust in God to give them the victory, just like David. Next week we will learn about David's kindness to Saul, a wonderful example in how to love those who would seek to harm us.

WOMEN'S STUDY GUILD meets Tuesday, October 15, at 6:30 pm in the church lower level to study part of Psalm 119. A short business meeting and refreshments follow.

BOOK FAIR The online book fair has been extended! You now have an additional week to shop for Christian-based books. Shop now at: <https://pfpages.com/store/immanuel-lutheran-school> The book fair is now open through Sunday, Oct. 20.

QUARTERLY VOTERS MEETING The Voters will meet in their quarterly meeting on Monday, October 21 at 7:00 p.m. Agenda items include welcoming new voters, Church Council elections, the Expansion Relocation Committee presenting four pieces of land for potential relocation, and a possible fiscal year change. Any new business may be brought from the floor. An important distinction for this meeting is there will be a council recommended proposed constitutional change. The biggest changes would be adding a Board of Elders, replacing the Board of Finance, adjusting duties of Church Officers, and restructuring the Church Council. Please read the bulletin addendum with the full set of motions as well as the proposed Constitutional changes in the narthex for precise wording.

MCCL MEETING Immanuel will be hosting the Minnesota Concerned for Life's 'Winning MN for Life' presentation on Tuesday, October 22nd in the church basement at 7:00pm. Please come and hear about the deadly effects of recent changes to Minnesota's abortion laws, and what you can do about it.
