First Reading

2 Kings 20:1-11

In those days Hezekiah was sick and near death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, went to him and said to him, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Set your house in order, for you shall die, and not live.’” 2 Then he turned his face toward the wall, and prayed to the LORD, saying, 3 “Remember now, O LORD, I pray, how I have walked before You in truth and with a loyal heart, and have done what was good in Your sight.” And Hezekiah wept bitterly. 4 And it happened, before Isaiah had gone out into the middle court, that the word of the LORD came to him, saying, 5 “Return and tell Hezekiah the leader of My people, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: “I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; surely I will heal you. On the third day you shall go up to the house of the LORD. 6 And I will add to your days fifteen years. I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city for My own sake, and for the sake of My servant David.”’” 7 Then Isaiah said, “Take a lump of figs.” So they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered. 8 And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “What is the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD the third day?” 9 Then Isaiah said, “This is the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing which He has spoken: [shall] the shadow go forward ten degrees or go backward ten degrees?” 10 And Hezekiah answered, “It is an easy thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees; no, but let the shadow go backward ten degrees.” 11 So Isaiah the prophet cried out to the LORD, and He brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down on the sundial of Ahaz.

Yet indeed I also count all things loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as rubbish, that I may gain Christ 9 and be found in Him, not having my own righteousness, which is from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith; 10 that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death, 11 if, by any means, I may attain to the resurrection from the dead. 12 Not that I have already attained, or am already perfected; but I press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me. 13 Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, 14 I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty. From there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

Then the disciples of John came to Him, saying, “Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but Your disciples do not fast?” 15 And Jesus said to them, “Can the friends of the bridegroom mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast. 16 No one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for the patch pulls away from the garment, and the tear is made worse. 17 Nor do they put new wine into old wineskins, or else the wineskins break, the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are ruined. But they put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved.”

MOLE INFESTATION Pilgrims Rest Cemetery continues to fight the mole infestation. We want to thank all the volunteers who volunteered last year. You made a difference! However, they are making a SIGNIFICANT comeback and they are now killing off sections of grass in areas of the cemetery. The devastation in some areas is unprecedented. I can only theorize that the mild winters have allowed them to increase their population. The moles dig around the flat stones and monuments causing them to tilt and /or sink leading to complaints from families, not to mention the numerous ruts left all over the cemetery. We are in desperate need of volunteers that can make a weekly commitment. The board is again looking for approximately 6 or more volunteers willing to donate 1-2 hours a week to assist with mole control. We have increased our supplies over the winter so it should not run out this summer like it did last year. Once we have a number of volunteers I will provide you with a map of the cemetery with your area of responsibility highlighted. If you are interested in volunteering, please speak with Tony Harris for further details. You can reach him by email at: anthony.j.harris.222@gmail.com or by phone: (507) 382-3081.

BOARD OF EDUCATION MESSAGE The Immanuel Board of Education is seeking input from ILS families and members of the congregation on the feasibility of beginning and maintaining an "After School Bible Club." Like an after-school program in timing, it would be located at the school and would begin directly following the school day. Unlike an after-school program, it will be designed to provide additional support in religious instruction for our young children in grades K-5. The various aspects would include a short Bible lesson, music/worship, snack, fellowship and, of course, indoor or outdoor physical activity to encourage spiritual growth, creativity and positive physical play. The anticipated cost would be $14.00 per day for a 4-day program ($56.00 per week total) and $12.75 per day for a 5-day program ($63.75 total). The program would run from after school until 6pm on School Days. If you or anyone you know would have an interest in utilizing this type of program offering at ILS, please reach out to any board of education member or call the school office to express your interest or ask any questions. Thank you for any input you may have. - ILS Board of Education

PRINCIPAL CALL The Board of Education is excited to announce they will be calling for a new principal at our upcoming Voters' Meeting on Monday, May 19th. In recent years Immanuel has called a teacher and then appointed one of our teachers to take on Principal duties. Due to the increased responsibilities of Principal and the fact that this role will be pivotal in shaping our school's future and ensuring its smooth operation, the Board of Education received Voter approval to call for a full-time Principal. The current description of duties for this call is available in the narthex for your review. The BOE is putting together a call list with the help of the CLC President. Part of this process includes compiling basic biographical information on any individual who will be nominated. If you have been prayerfully led to nominate someone at the upcoming meeting, please inform BOE Chairman William Roetger or Pastor Mayhew by next Sunday (May 12) so that they can include the name and biography on the call list. Any voting member of Immanuel can nominate. Non-voters should speak to a voter or a pastor if they would like to nominate. Nominations will be accepted from the floor. Thank you for your prayerful consideration and support in this important endeavor.

FAREWELL Please join us for cake in the church basement following the Sunday, May 18 service to say farewell to Principal Brandan Heinze, and to thank him for his years of service to our school.

EVENING AMBASSADORS This upcoming Monday, May 12th from 5-7pm any 9-12th grader is welcome to join us for an Evening Ambassadors. We will have a potluck (bring a dish to pass!) and then will gather to do a character study on Abraham. We are meeting at the Lien Residence, contact the church office if you need the address. A BLESSED MOTHER'S DAY! Among the mothers of history of whose lives we know, a high place is forever assured to Monica, the mother of Augustine, one of the great teachers of the Christian Church. In his early manhood Augustine was a brilliant, but dissolute, teacher of rhetoric. His mother was an earnest Christian and grieved over her son's sinful ways. But she never ceased to pray for him, and she always hoped for the day when he would eventually become a Christian. Her prayers were answered. Augustine not only became a Christian but also one of the most influential men the Christian church has ever known. In his religious classic, The Confessions of St. Augustine, he not only recorded his own inner life, but also expressed his noble appreciation for the faithfulness of his mother. At the time of his conversion, he said: "If I am thy child, O God, it is because thou didst give me such a mother."

Thank the LORD for Godly Mothers!

If a stay-at-home mom could be compensated in dollars rather than personal satisfaction and unconditional love, she'd rake in a nifty sum of nearly $117,000 a year. That's according to a pre-Mother's Day study released Thursday by Salary.com, a Waltham, Mass.-based firm that studies workplace compensation. The eighth annual survey calculated a mom's market value by studying pay levels for 10 job titles with duties that a typical mom performs, ranging from housekeeper and day care center teacher to van driver, psychologist and chief executive officer. This year, the annual salary for a stay-at-home mom would be $116,805, while a working mom who also juggles an outside job would get $68,405 for her motherly duties. One stay-at-home mom said the six-figure salary sounds a little low. "I think a lot of people think we sit and home and have a lot of fun and don't do a lot of work," said Samantha Russell, a Fremont, N.H., mother who left her job as pastry chef to raise two boys, ages 2 and 4. "But they should try cleaning their house with little kids running around and messing it up right after them." The biggest driver of a mom's theoretical salary is the amount of overtime pay she'd receive for working more than 40 hours a week. The 18,000 moms surveyed about their typical week reported working 94.4 hours — meaning they'd be spending more than half their working hours on overtime. Working moms reported an average 54.6 hour "mom work week" besides the hours they spent at paying jobs. Russell agreed her job as a stay-at-home mom is more than full-time. But she said her "job" brings intangible benefits she wouldn't enjoy in the workplace. "The rewards aren't monetary, but it's a reward knowing that they're safe and happy," Russell said of her sons. "It's worth it all." - (Study taken from the Associated Press on May 8, 2008)

If the above represents the world's view on Stay at Home Moms, of how much more value is the Christian Mother?

Thank God for mothers, young and old,
Who live today within His fold;
Who pattern as in days of yore,
The godly mothers gone before;
Whose hands repose—complete their task.
Thank God for these. Then, Lord, we ask,
Bless mothers who for us still pray.
Thank God for them this Mother's Day.
